Stockholm, February 1.

ON Saturday laſt a Reſolution was taken by all the Orders of the States, that no Motion or Propoſal concerning the Succeſſion to the Crown, ſhould be made by any Member, till ſuch Time as the Grand Secret Deputation, jointly with the Senate, ſhould have declared to the Diet that ſuch Deliberation might be entered into without any Prejudice to the Safety and Dignity of this Nation.

Petersbourg, Feb. 5. General Keith hath reſolved to remain in this Service, as has likewiſe Lieutenant General Lieven, and ſeveral other Foreign Officers of Reputation. General Lowendahl has indeed obtained Leave to go to Poland, and from thence to Holſtein; but it is believed he will come back again, and at his Return be made General of the Artillery, in the room of the Prince of Heſſe Hombourg, who ſollicits the Permiſſion to go into Germany for the Recovery of his Health. The Day before Yeſterday was celebrated here the Anniverſary of the Inſtitution of the Order of St. Anne, founded by the late Duke of Holſtein upon his Marriage with the Princeſs Anne, Siſter to her preſent Imperial Majeſty. His Imperial Highneſs the Great Duke, Sovereign of the Order, and ten Knights, dreſt in the Habit of the Order, went in Proceſſion through the Empreſs's Apartments to Chapel, where Divine Service was performed by the Archbiſhop of Novogorod, aſſiſted by four Biſhops. Afterwards his Imperial Highneſs dined in Publick with the ſaid Knights. There were ſeveral Diſcharges of Cannon, and a grand Concert of Vocal and Inſtrumental Muſick during Dinner. In the Evening there was a Maſquerade at Court.

Naples, Feb. 12, N. S. Laſt Week a Convoy of eleven Tranſports from Brindiſi anchored at this Port, conducting the Artillery, Ammunition, &c. which ſome few Months ago was ſent from hence for the Uſe of the Spaniſh and Neapolitan Armies in the Eccleſiaſtical State. The King has granted the Exportation from the Kingdom of Sicily of 100,000 Tomolis of Corn, free from the uſual Duties, for the Benefit of the Publick.

Florence, Feb. 16. N. S. Upon the 11th towards Evening the Spaniſh Army returned, and took up their old Poſts again in the Suburbs of Bologne, in the Chartreux, and other Convents. M. de Gages, when he was got upon the Bridge of Rheno, a Mile off Bologne, cauſed a triple Diſcharge of ſmall Arms and Field Pieces to be made by the Troops which had already paſſed over it, and in his March under the Walls of Bologne he cauſed himſelf to be preceeded, by Way of Triumph, by two hundred Auſtrians, who had been taken Priſoners in the Beginning of the Battle. After this he went to his old Quarters. Upon the 12th in the Morning he went, accompanied by his principal Officers richly dreſſed, to the Church of the Spaniſh College in Bologne, where he cauſed ſolemn Maſs and Te Deum to be ſung for the great Victory obtained over the Armies of the Queen of Hungary, and the King of Sardinia. The Spaniards had given out through the City of Bologne, that they would that Day expoſe to publick View the Kettle Drums and the Standards which they had taken from the Enemy, which drew a great Concourſe of People together, but nothing of that Kind was to be ſeen, which occaſioned great Laughing and Raillery among the Populace. According to their own Account they left above Three thouſand Men dead upon the Field of Battle, and there are almoſt as many wounded and deſerted. In the Spaniſh Brigade of Guards alone there are wanting 80 Officers, the greateſt Part of which were killed. The Walloons, the Spaniſh Guards, the Regiments of Ireland, and of Lombardy, the Regiments of Sagunto, and the Queen's Dragoons are almoſt entirely ruined, and the Royal Carabineers have ſuffered a great deal. The Lieutenants General Mac Donel and his two Sons, the Dukes D'Arcos, D'Atrico, and the Count D'Aranda are wounded, beſides a great Number of other Officers. M. de Gages, the Day before the Battle, ſent away his Plate, Baggage, and other Things of Value by the Way of Ferrara to Faenza. At preſent he is fortifying himſelf at the Chartreux and other Poſts under the Walls of Bologne, upon the Advice that he has received that a Body of three thouſand Auſtrians are come on this Side of the Panaro, and have encamped at Caſtel St. Giovanni. But although the Spaniards pretend that they will remain at Bologne, it is nevertheleſs believed that they deſign to retire towards the Romagna, for it is certain that they have ſent away in the Night a great many Carriages for Faenza, and that their Army is ſo broken, that it is not in a Condition to make Reſiſtance againſt a ſmall Body of Troops. They confeſs that M. de Traun made ſurpriſing good Uſe of his Cannon and his Infantry, but ſay that his Cavalry performed but indifferently. A Colonel of the Royal Carabineers paſſed through this Place the Day before Yeſterday, who, as is reported, is carrying to Madrid the Standards taken from the Auſtrians in the laſt Battle. There is a Report here, that the Pope is fallen ill, and that this News was brought by ſome Travellers who left Rome after the laſt Poſt.

Rome, Feb. 16. M. de Thun has cauſed all the Papers and Writings of the late Cardinal del Guidice, relating to the Affairs of the Queen of Hungary, to be removed to his own Houſe, in Expectation of the Inſtructions of the Court of Vienna.

Florence, Feb. 19. Yeſterday, about Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, died of a Malignant Fever, the Electreſs Dowager Palatine. Laſt Night an Extraordinary Council was held, and in the Night a Courier was, by the Regency, diſpatched to Rome, with Directions to the Great Duke's Miniſter to take Poſſeſſion of her Money and Revenue in that State. This Morning a Courier

Courier was dispatched to the Great Duke to acquaint his Highness therewith. All publick Diversions, Operas, &c. have been forbidden; and the Preparations for her Funeral are making with great Hurry. On the 17th at Night died at Leghorne, of a Pleuretick Fever, Prince Ottajano de Medicis, a Subject of the King of Naples.

Vienna, Feb. 20. Three Battallions compleat of an old Hungarian Regiment, joined on the Road by a fourth, are already ordered into Italy, with 1500 Recruits for the German Regiments there, to reinforce Marshal Traun. It may be depended on that the Spaniards have not lost less than 4500 Men, and the Confederates not more than 1000. Prince Lobcowitz's Head Quarter is at Neuburg near Cham, but he is extended all along the Naab.

Ratisbon, Feb. 25. The Troops under the Command of Velt Marshal Khevenhuller are actually marched out of the Places where they were cantoned, in order to form the Blockade of Braunau and Burghausen. Prince Lobcowitz advances every Day towards Straubing, in such a Manner as seems to imply an Intention to besiege that Town. Marshal Maillebois, who continues to command at Stadt-am-Hoff, has sent Part of his Baggage to this City, where it is lodged in the House of M. de la Noüe the French Minister.

Maestricht, March 1, N. S. On the 27th of February the Earl of Stair passed through this Place in his Way to Aix la Chapelle, under a triple Discharge of our Artillery; and this Day the British Train arrived here, where it will continue for some Time, on Account of the Badness of the Roads; and the Horses belonging to it were intended to be sent to Viset, a Town two Leagues distant from hence, in the Principality of Liege.

Aix la Chapelle, Feb. 28, N. S. Last Night his Excellency Velt Marshal Earl of Stair arrived here from Maestricht.

St. Tron, March 1, N. S. Yesterday the Fifth Division of the English Troops, consisting of the Royal Regiment of Dragoons, with Major General Howard's and Colonel Handasyd's Regiments of Foot, arrived here, and will pursue their March To-morrow for Tongres and Maestricht.

Liege, March 5. N. S. Yesterday the Sixth Division of the English Forces, consisting of Sir Robert Rich's Dragoons, with Peer's and Pulteney's Regiments of Foot, commanded by Brigadier Pulteney, arrived at Tongres, and will this Day prosecute their March through Maestricht towards the Neighbourhood of Aix la Chapelle. And Yesterday the Seventh Division, consisting of Lord Cadogan's Dragoons, with the Regiments of Brigadier Onslow and Brigadier Conwallis, arrived at St. Tron, upon the Frontier of this Principality; from whence they will proceed To-morrow by the same Route of Tongres and Maestricht.

Berlin, March 2. N. S. The King of Prussia is expected here from Potzdam on Tuesday next. He will stay but a few Days in Town; from hence he returns to Potzdam, where he will remain till the 20th Instant, which is the Day appointed for his Journey to Silesia.

Brussels, March 6, N. S. By Advices from Ratisbon of the 19th of February, they have there refused a Passage to a Body of French Troops detached from Straubing for Stadt-am-Hoff, which were designed to fortify the Garrison against any Attempts of the Troops of the Queen of Hungary, which were marching that Way. The Detachment was stopped half a Day before it could pass the Danube by a Bridge of Boats in the Neighbourhood, which wanted to be repaired. Never heless they would have permitted a Passage by small Divisions for the Horses, Baggages and their Escorts. Egra and Amberg remained closely blockaded.

Carlton-House, Feb. 27.

This Day Signior Gastaldi, Minister from the Republick of Genoa, had a private Audience of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

And afterwards a private Audience of her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales; to both which he was introduced by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

St. James's, Feb. 28.

This Day Sig. Gastaldi, Minister from the Republick of Genoa, had a private Audience of his Royal Highness the Duke.

And afterwards a private Audience of their Royal Highnesses the Princesses Amelia, Caroline, and Louisa; to both which he was introduc'd by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, February 26, 1742-3.

Whereas it has been represented to His Majesty, That on the 9th Day of January last, William Morgan, and Edward Halehan, Mariners, were murdered on the Strand, near Rhiw, in the County of Carnarvon, as appeared by the Cuts, and other Marks of Violence on their Bodies: His Majesty, for the better discovering, and bringing to Justice, the Person, or Persons, who committed the said Murder, is pleased to promise His Most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually murdered the said William Morgan, and Edward Halehan, or either of them;) who shall discover his Accomplice, or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
